What is the UNESCO Associated Schools Network?

UNESCO Associated Schools have a long history that dates back to 1953, when the UNESCO Associated Schools Project Network (ASPnet) was inaugurated to carry the philosophies stated in the UNESC Charter into action at schools. It was first started with 33 institutions from 15 member countries, it expanded into about 9,000 schools from more than 180 countries and regions. In Japan, there are 550 schools, which are kindergartens, elementary schools, junior high schools, high school and universities as of December, 2012. In Mie Prefecture, Mie University and 9 elementary schools, 5 junior high schools and 1 high school are the member of ASPnet, Mie University assist school activities and join ASPnet with any support.
